Consecutive HRs lead Friendship

Defeat Halls to set up Goodpasture rematch

Tennessean Staff Reports

MEMPHIS — Jackson Sledge and Zack Gardner broke open a close game with consecutive homers in the fifth inning, lifting Friendship to an 8-1 win over Halls in the Class A baseball tournament.

The Commanders (37-5) were clinging to a 2-1 lead when Sledge hit a three-run homer on a 3-2 count with two outs. Gardner followed with a solo shot, stretching Friendship's lead to 6-1.

Brent Boyd (4-0), a sophomore with a sidearm delivery, earned the win in relief of Cody Searcey.

Halls led 1-0 with the bases loaded and no outs when Boyd entered the game in the third. He quickly got out of the jam.

Friendship earned a rematch with Goodpasture (34-8) at noon today at Bolton. The Commanders beat the Cougars 7-2 on Tuesday.

Friendship, which has set a school record for wins, is one win from its first trip to the final. But the defending champ stands in the way. Goodpasture has to win twice to advance to tomorrow's twice to advance to tomorrow's final.

Class A: Friendship Coach John McNeal said two thoughts went through his mind when his team fell behind 3-0 in its second game against Goodpasture yesterday.

"Should I go home this afternoon or tomorrow morning?" McNeal admitted thinking.

Turns out, he's still in Memphis.

Goodpasture clobbered Friendship 11-0 in five innings before the Commanders rallied to win 5-3 in the second game of the double-elimination game at Bolton.

That earned Friendship (36-6) its first trip to the state championship. The Commanders will play University School of Jackson (36-5) today at 10 a.m. at USA Stadium.

Left-hander Logan Darnell silenced the Commanders in the first game with a one-hitter, but the Cougars (35-9) pulled him in the fourth inning of the second game.

Friendship's Jon Miller hit a solo home run to tie the game 3-3 in the fourth. Jackson Sledge added a solo homer in the sixth. ■
