Lady Rebels earn finals; streak alive

BRENTWOOD — Franklin girls soccer team, the Tennessee Secondary School Athletic Association defending state champions, defeated Notre Dame here last night 4-1 and now stand only one game away from this year's title.

But, the final score doesn't tell it all as the Lady Rebels pushed their overall record to 75-0-2, the longest non-losing streak in girls prep soccer in the nation. The Lady Rebels are 17-0 this season.

Franklin will put that streak on the line today at 2 p.m. at Brentwood High, taking on Germantown, a 1-0 winner over Farragut.

At the end of the first half last night, the Franklin girls had to be wondering if the magic was almost over. It was anybody's game at the end of the half with both teams tied at 1-all.

Shauna Christiansen scored for Franklin in the first half, and Kelly O'Neill scored for Notre Dame.

And, it was early in the second half when Christiansen had yet another goal, but Notre Dame didn't stop trying with one attempt after that.

The bout was decided midway through the second half with back-to-back goals by forwards Trish Sisson, a junior, and Stacey Burchett, a senior.

And it wasn't until then that the Rebels were able to rest easy, after playing what Christiansen termed a 'flat' game.

"We were tired toward the end of the first half, and played a little flat," said Christiansen, who will be playing her last high school soccer game today. "Hopefully, we can get everything together," she added concerning today's matchup.

And her teammates agree everything will definitely have to be together.

"This win doesn't leave much room to breathe," said Burchett. "They're out to get us."

Franklin Coach Gary Shrader is well aware of that, and was quick to point out last night's flaws. Although he wasn't totally pleased with the way his team played, he was indeed pleased with the outcome.

"We played the ball too much to the middle, he said, "We need to be more consistent. We need to play a full eighty minutes tomorrow night and stay in our passing game."

Notre Dame ended the season with a 16-3-2 mark. ■

Farragut meets Franklin in rematch

BRENTWOOD, Tenn. — Franklin and Farragut, the previous two-time state girls soccer finalists in an independent league, made today's inaugural TSSAA championship game with much different semifinal results last night.

While Franklin's Lady Rebels routed Chattanooga Notre Dame 7-0, Farragut's team from Knoxville just squeezed by Memphis Briarcrest 3-2 on a last-minute goal by Michelle Gregg.

Both the Lady Rebels and the Lady Admirals are undefeated going into today's 2 p.m. finals match at Brentwood High school. In spirit only, Franklin is defending the state crown it won against Farragut in both of the past coaches-sponsored high school tournaments.

Last night sophomore right wing Trish Sisson had two goals, both in the first half, and one assist in Franklin's rout. The Rebels held Notre Dame to three shots on goal and ran up a 4-0 lead in the first half.

Gregg scored the winning goal for Farragut with 1:11 left on an assist by Kim Evans.

In past years, Memphis schools have not played with those from Middle and East Tennessee in soccer because boys and girls had opposite seasons in the Weststate than here.

Briarcrest surprised the Admirals early, however, taking a 1-0 lead on a goal by Heather McNeer five minutes into the contest. Farragut's outstanding forward Tracy Foels tied the game with an assist from Keely Miles, making the score 1-1.

After halftime Ronda Hebert scored with 15:43 left. Briarcrest then made it 2-2 a McNeer goal with 3:40 remaining.

Franklin has never lost a game since the girls program began in 1982, and has outscored its opponents 128-6 this season. Last night's shutout gave the team 11 for the year.

This is the first year that the Tennessee Secondary School Athletic Association sanctioned championship play for its members in soccer. Boys will compete under the TSSAA flag next spring. ■

The action sometimes meant close quarters in the semifinal game between Farragut and Briarcrest in the girls state soccer playoffs at Brentwood High.
