CHATTANOOGA -- Dusty Johnson scattered five hits and won his 11th game of the season as Farragut eked out a 2-1 victory over Hendersonville in the first round of the TSSAA Class AAA Baseball Tournament Wednesday at Historic Engel Stadium.

Johnson improved to 11-0, winning a pitcher's duel against Hendersonville's Jeremy Hughett.

Johnson walked one and struck out three and was helped by his defense, which turned three double plays, including one that ended the game after Cory White had singled with one out.

Hughett (9-6) sparkled on the hill as well, scattering six hits, walking one and striking out four.

The Admirals took a 1-0 advantage in the second inning when Jake Allen, who led off with a single and went to third on Jason Wright's single, scored on an errant pickoff throw to first base. Joey Hungate, who was running for Wright, was thrown out at third.

Hendersonville would tie the game at 1-1 in the fifth inning.

Brandon Hall led off the inning with a double and scored on Cory White's single. White was sacrificed to second with one out, but the Commandos could not plate him.

Farragut got the run back in the bottom of the fifth to retake the lead at 2-1.

Hungate, pinch-running for Davis Burklin, scored on a wild pitch after moving to second on Jay Sadlowe's single and to third on Matt Maples' groundout.
