MBA's Corzine, Creek's Miller Capture Titles

Brooks Corzine of Montgomery Bell Academy won the TSSAA Decathlon and White Creek's Catherine Miller took the Pentathlon title yesterday at the McGavock High track.

Corzine, scoring 7,695 points, outdueled Clarksville Northeast's Stacey Thomas, 7,230 points, with a strong second-day showing — including the best performance in the triple jump, with 41 feet.

Miller, the TSSAA State low hurdles champion, capped a sensational year in track by winning the top points in three events yesterday — the 100 meter hurdles, the high jump and the 800 meter run.

Miller scored 4,555 points to outdistance Shegog, who finished with 4,505.
