Crossville, TN

September 30 - October 1, 2003

BOYS RESULTS – FIRST ROUND

Brandon Burris of White House and Blake Lannom of Hendersonville Tied For Lead After Day One; Clarksville Leads Science Hill by One Stroke for Team Title

CROSSVILLE- - White House's Brandon Burris shot a 69 (35-34) to finish day one tied with Hendersonville's Blake Lannom, who also shot a 69 (36-33). The first tee times of the day were delayed for an hour due to frost at the Bear Trace at Cumberland Mountain State Park, which is the host course of a state tournament for the first time.

Ryne Fisher of Clarksville shot a two under par 70 (33-37) to finish day one in third place and just one stroke behind the leaders. He combined with teammates Alan Reece, James Brannon, and Jon Clouser to give Clarksville a team score of 302 and a one-stroke lead over Science Hill heading into the final day of competition. Science Hill was led by Derek Adams, who shot a 73 (36-37) to finish day one tied for tenth place with Jason Millard of Riverdale. Adams combined with teammates Chris Wynne (74), Blake Howard (77), and Brad Robinson (79) to give Science Hill a first day team score of 303.

Clarksville is the defending champion and Science Hill won the championship in 2001, with Clarksville finishing as runner-up that year.

Bud Reynolds of Knoxville West and Jonathan Hodge of Jefferson County each shot a one under par 71 to finish day one tied for fourth and just two strokes off the lead. Peter Malnati of Jefferson County, Jake Scheffers of Greeneville, Micah McShan of Cumberland County, and James Brannon of Clarksville each shot a 72 to finish tied for sixth after day one.

Twelve individuals head into the final day of competition just five strokes behind the leaders. A total of 18 individuals are seven strokes behind the leaders.
