

ECS defeats Roane, 12-8

MURFREESBORO — Evangelical Christian School is one game away from a perfect season after beating Roane County 12-8 last night in the Class AA semifinals of the TSSAA state baseball tournament being played at Middle Tennessee State.

The Eagles, from Cordova, Tenn., are 29-0 heading into tonight's championship series, which will follow the the 5 p.m. Class A final.

Roane County of East Tennessee dropped into the loser's bracket semifinal against Marshall County, a 5-3 winner over McMinn County earlier yesterday.

The Marshall County-Roane County game, a rematch of the first round of the tournament, which Roane County won 13-10, will be played today at noon with the winner earning a finals berth.

Roane County's record dropped to 26-4.

Roane County threatened in the seventh inning last night, scoring five runs after taking advantage of three ECS errors.