WINCHESTER, Tenn. – David Lipscomb scored six runs in the first three innings and held off a Jackson South Side seventh-inning rally in a 9-6 victory in the TSSAA Class AA Baseball Tournament on Wednesday at Gamble Sports Complex.

Kyle Felts hit his second home run of the tournament, a three-run shot in the first, to stake the Mustangs to a lead.

Scott Richardson added a two-run shot in the fifth.

David Lipscomb (24-1) will be trying to win its first state championship since a Class AA title in 1986.

Jackson South Side (23-8) will play Unicoi County on Thursday at 12:30 p.m. at Motlow State near Tullahoma with the winner facing Lipscomb at 7:30 p.m. in Winchester.
