TULLAHOMA, Tenn. – Johnson City Science Hill scored four runs on Thursday before the rain and added three on Friday to defeat No. 1-ranked Germantown 7-3 in the TSSAA Class AAA Baseball Tournament at Grider Stadium.

Science Hill (32-8) scored four runs in the first inning, helped by Richard Markland's three-run double.

Dennis Higdon hit a two-run homer and John Patterson followed with a solo shot in the third inning to give the Hilltoppers a 7-1 lead.

Science Hill's Blake Kaylor threw a complete game two-hitter with one strikeout, walking four.

Germantown (34-3) scored a single run in the third inning on Steven Kines' RBI single. Adam Larson blasted a two-run homer in the seventh.

The game was resumed on Friday morning after high winds and heavy rain stopped the game in the bottom of the second inning on Thursday night with Science Hill leading 4-0.
