TULLAHOMA, Tenn. – Germantown powered two more home runs and eliminated Warren County with an 8-3 win in the TSSAA Class AAA Baseball Tournament Friday night at Grider Stadium.

The victory advances the Red Devils, who entered the tournament as the No.1 team in the state, into a championship series on Saturday in Winchester, Tenn.

Ben Johnson hit a three-run homer over the left field fence to put Germantown (35-3) on the board.

Warren County rallied back to tie the game at 3-3 in the third inning on Chad McCormick's two-run double.

Germantown put the game away with two in the fourth to take a 6-3 lead on Steven Kines RBI single and Jeremy Hollis' sacrifice fly off losing pitcher Sean Evans.

Adam Larson hit his second home run of the tournament to lead off the sixth inning. Germantown will play Johnson City Science Hill, which defeated the Red Devils 7-3 in a game suspended from Thursday night and resumed on Friday morning.

Warren County finished its season with a 24-11 record.
