TULLAHOMA, Tenn. – Cordova Evangelical Christian School held off a seventh-inning rally and defeated The Baylor School of Chattanooga 5-4 in the first round of the TSSAA Division II Baseball Tournament on Wednesday.

Baylor had the bases loaded with one out in the seventh and Jason White worked out of trouble allowing only a sacrifice fly and picked up the complete-game victory.

Ryan Hayes picked up a couple of hits for ECS (23-5) and drove in two runs.

Brian Geppi and Garth Brown each drove in two runs for Baylor (17-14).

ECS will play Battle Ground Academy on Thursday at 5 p.m. at Grider Stadium. BGA shut out McCallie 10-0 on Tyler Sullivan's no-hitter.
