CLEVELAND -- Christian Brothers scored three runs in its last two at bats to defeat Briarcrest 8-5 Friday and advance to the TSSAA Division II Baseball championship game Friday at Historic Engel Stadium.

The Purple Wave (29-12) was scheduled to play Goodpasture in Friday's championship series.

John Sykes' sacrifice fly in the fifth scored Chad House, who had tripled.

Jeremy Jeter, the winning pitcher, drove in two runs with a double in the fifth inning.

CBHS had taken a 2-0 lead after two innings. Mark Anderson homered in the first inning and Chad Farr scored on an error in the second frame.

Briarcrest (24-16) tied the game in the fourth inning on a two-run single by Jonathan Phillips.

The Purple Wave answered with three in the bottom of the fourth inning.

Tim Lloyd drove in a run with a triple and scored on an error. Chris Godwin had an RBI-single.

Briarcrest tied the game again in the top of the fifth on an RBI double by Clay Hoppe and an RBI single by Robby Donaldson. Hoppe scored the tying run on an error.
